Qué tienes en este PDF

Estos son 50 temas cotidianos de los que suelen salir en el nivel B2, como la familia, las relaciones, los viajes o el trabajo, y cada uno trae una tarjeta de monólogo, una de diálogo y unas palabras útiles. Están basadas en el formato de la prueba oral de certificación B2 de las Escuelas Oficiales de Idiomas, aunque no son tarjetas oficiales, y la idea es que puedas hablar con seguridad de cualquiera de estos temas cuando llegue el examen.

Cómo usar estas tarjetas

1. Haz uno o dos monólogos al día. Si te quedan meses para el examen no hace falta más, porque lo que te da soltura es practicar casi todos los días, no darte un atracón la semana antes.
2. Prepara 3 minutos con palabras clave. Apunta solo palabras sueltas y tu esquema, sin escribir frases completas, porque en el examen puedes mirar tus notas pero no leerlas.
3. Habla 3 minutos con el cronómetro y grábate. Elige dos o tres de las preguntas, usa conectores y mantén tu estructura, y al escucharte apunta en qué momento te quedaste callado.
4. Haz el diálogo con alguien. Busca a un compañero de clase, un amigo o alguien que también se presente, y hablad 4 o 5 minutos hasta llegar a un acuerdo, preguntándoos la opinión y reaccionando a lo que dice el otro.

Si te ayuda, escríbelo primero. Las primeras veces puedes escribir el monólogo para tener un esqueleto de la estructura y del estilo que quieres usar, pero no para memorizarlo, porque lo que buscas es sentirte cómodo hablando de cualquier tema.

No estudies listas enormes de vocabulario. Las palabras de cada tarjeta son solo algunas que te pueden venir bien, y al final el speaking depende de lo bien que expresas lo que piensas, que es algo que se aprende hablando.

No te preocupes por repetir frases. Si practicas muchos monólogos vas a notar que dices los mismos conectores y las mismas introducciones, y no pasa nada, porque en el examen solo vas a hacer un monólogo y para el tribunal será la primera vez que te escucha.

Los tiempos de las tarjetas son orientativos, porque cada comunidad autónoma fija los suyos. Te explico el examen completo y las diferencias por comunidad en profedeenglish.com/articulos/examen-oral-eoi-b2-ingles.

Frases para tu esqueleto

No hace falta usarlas todas, pero tener unas cuantas automatizadas te quita mucha presión en los minutos de preparación.

Para el monólogo

I'd like to talk about...
Me gustaría hablar de...

First of all, ...
Para empezar, ...

On top of that, ...
Además de eso, ...

A good example of this is...
Un buen ejemplo de esto es...

On the other hand, ...
Por otro lado, ...

All in all, I'd say that...
En resumen, yo diría que...

Para el diálogo

What do you think about...?
¿Qué te parece...?

How about...?
¿Y si...?

That's a good idea, but...
Es buena idea, pero...

I see what you mean, although...
Entiendo lo que dices, aunque...

Shall we move on to...?
¿Pasamos a...?

So, shall we go for...?
Entonces, ¿nos quedamos con...?

¿Te está sirviendo?

Si te está sirviendo este material, seguramente te gusten también el resto de materiales y las clases en directo de mi comunidad, Real English With Rob, donde practicas tu speaking cada semana con nativos y conmigo.

Llevo casi 10 años enseñando inglés a hispanohablantes, y lo que más veo es a gente que entiende mucho pero se bloquea cuando le toca hablar. La comunidad está pensada justo para eso: para que dejes de bloquearte en 90 días hablando con gente, y para que la confianza llegue sola.

Lo que dicen los miembros

Estas son algunas de las reseñas que han dejado miembros de la comunidad, para que veas cómo es por dentro contado por ellos.

"[...] tuve una entrevista con un australiano y no entendí nada. Entonces, llegué a la comunidad para estudiar con Rob. Cada día le entiendo mejor. [...] He aumentado muchísimo mi vocabulario y he mejorado mi listening."

Marge L., miembro desde hace 7 meses

"Las clases de intercambio son geniales [...] hace que sea un lugar seguro donde poder practicar [...] sobre todo hablar aun con un nivel bajo y muchos errores, eso hace que poco a poco vaya quitándome la vergüenza."

Vanesa C., miembro desde hace 2 meses

"Rob es un profe muy comprometido y eso se nota en cada clase. Sus clases son dinámicas, variadas y sabe cómo crear buen ambiente."

Sara María C., miembro desde hace 2 meses

"[...] las conversaciones con hablantes nativos del idioma inglés es muy retador pero a la vez es muy satisfactorio perder el miedo y atreverte a hablar."

Dennis T., miembro desde hace 2 meses

"Last Friday was my first language exchange. I was nervous at the beginning, but later I felt more relaxed and confident."

Cuando termines la lista

Si has llegado hasta aquí haciendo uno o dos temas al día, ya has hablado de 50 temas distintos, y eso se nota mucho más el día del examen que cualquier lista de vocabulario. Para las semanas que te queden, esto es lo que te recomiendo:

1. Vuelve a los que más te costaron. Repasa tu lista de temas, elige los que dejaste a medias o en los que te quedaste en blanco y repítelos, porque la segunda vez notarás que ya tienes mucho más que decir.
2. Mezcla las tarjetas. Haz el monólogo de un tema y el diálogo de otro, o pídele a alguien que elija la tarjeta por ti, para acostumbrarte a no saber qué te va a tocar.
3. Haz simulacros completos. Mira los tiempos de tu comunidad autónoma y haz el examen entero de una vez: la preparación, el monólogo, el diálogo y también la mediación oral, que es la parte que más sorprende.
4. Practica la mediación con IA. En el artículo sobre el examen oral tienes dos prompts para que una IA te prepare una mediación y te diga qué tal la has hecho, y lo encuentras en profedeenglish.com/articulos/examen-oral-eoi-b2-ingles.

Y sigue hablando. Las tarjetas te dan los temas, pero lo que de verdad te prepara es hablar inglés todo lo que puedas, en cualquier situación y con cualquier persona, porque expresar lo que piensas es algo que solo se aprende hablando.

Deja de bloquearte en 90 días

Estas tarjetas te dan soltura con los temas, pero lo que de verdad te quita el bloqueo es hablar con personas que te responden. En Real English With Rob hablas cada semana con nativos y conmigo, y si te presentas a la EOI, con Premium lo preparamos 1 a 1 con un plan hecho para tu examen.
