Reported speech

Cómo contar lo que otra persona ha dicho, preguntado u ordenado, con 34 ejercicios y soluciones.

Usamos el reported speech (estilo indirecto) para contar lo que alguien ha dicho. Para pasar de lo que se dijo a lo que contamos hay que cambiar tres cosas: el verbo para introducirlo (said, told, asked), los pronombres y, casi siempre, el tiempo verbal.

"I like doughnuts," said Mabel.
Mabel said (that) she liked doughnuts.

Ponemos un verbo como said, cambiamos I por she y pasamos el present simple a past simple. El that es opcional.

Cómo cambian los tiempos

Lo que dijo	Lo que cuentas
present simple	past simple
present continuous	past continuous present perfect	past perfect
present perfect continuous	past perfect continuous
past simple	past perfect
past continuous	past perfect continuous
past perfect	no cambia
will	would
can	could

Y las expresiones de tiempo

Lo que dijo	Lo que cuentas
today	that day
tonight	that night
this morning	that morning
this week / month	that week / month
yesterday	the day before, the previous day
tomorrow	the next day, the following day
next week	the following week
last night	the night before, the previous night

"I don't want to go to school," said Gerty. → Gerty said that she didn't want to go to school.
"I will buy you some new shoes," said Carolina. → Carolina said that she would buy me some new shoes.

Reported questions

Preguntas con who, what, when, where, how...

Usamos asked, mantenemos la palabra interrogativa y ponemos el orden de una frase normal (sujeto + verbo). No hay signo de interrogación ni do/did.

"What time is it?" asked Roberto. → Roberto asked what time it was.
"What time does the train leave?" asked Andrea. → Andrea asked what time the train left.
"When are you going to Granada?" asked Inma. → Inma asked when I was going to Granada.

Preguntas de sí o no

Empezamos igual, con asked, y añadimos if (o whether).

"Do you want to come to the supermarket with me?" asked Harriet. → Harriet asked if I wanted to go to the supermarket with her.
"Will you see your brother next week?" asked Leopold. → Leopold asked if I would see my brother the following week.
"Did you watch anything good on TV last night?" asked Hernán. → Hernán asked if I had watched anything good on TV the night before.

Reported orders

Para órdenes y peticiones usamos told o asked + persona + to + infinitivo. Si la orden es negativa, not to.

"Sit down!" said the teacher. → The teacher told us to sit down.
"Close the window, I'm freezing," said Linzi. → Linzi told me to close the window because she was freezing.
"Don't be late," said my boss. → My boss told me not to be late.
